DATE OF INCIDENT: January 8, 2013 at 3:02 PM

LOCATION: Green Tree Drive

INCIDENT: Unlawfully Growing Cannabis

At approximately 3:02 pm on January 8, 2013, Hyde Park Police were dispatched to a residence on Green Tree Drive North to assist Child Protective Services with a welfare check. CPS had received an anonymous complaint that the occupants of the residence were growing marijuana and there were children in the house. Patrol and Detective division responded and the owners gave consent to search and Officers found 20-30 marijuana plants and elaborate growing equipment.

The owner of the plants and equipment was taken into custody. He was identified as David J Hanlon Jr a 35 year old male from Hyde Park.

Hanlon was arraigned in Hyde Park Justice Court by Judge John M Kennedy and remanded to Dutchess County Jail without bail. He was remanded without bail because he had been previously convicted of two felonies, so he is not eligible for bail. He is due back in Hyde Park Court on January 11, 2013 at 6:00 pm.

Arrested: David J Hanlon Jr, a 35 year old male from Hyde Park

Charges: Criminal Possession of Marijuana in the 2nd Degree, a Class D Felony
Unlawful Growing of Cannabis a Class A Misdemeanor (Public Health Law)
