LOCATION: 4258 Albany Post Road, Town of Hyde Park (McDonald's)

INCIDENT: Police arrest subject for DWI; driver's BAC more than three times the legal limit

On Saturday morning at app. 5AM, Hyde Park Police were called to the McDonald's on Route 9, for a report of a suspicious vehicle. The caller, an employee of the restaurant, had stated that although they did not open until 6AM, a male subject had been observed several minutes earlier walking around the establishment.

HPPD Officer Jackie Mikula arrived on the scene, and located a vehicle in the drive-thru; the vehicle was running, but the driver was reclined in the seat and passed out behind the wheel. Officer Mikula awoke the driver, while attempting to ensure the vehicle did not move. Once the vehicle was secured, the driver was identified as 28-year-old Shaun M. Day of Hyde Park. Day made admissions of having driven the vehicle to McDonald's, and of having consumed a large quantity of alcohol sometime earlier. A number of field sobriety tests were performed, and Day was taken into custody and brought to Hyde Park PD for booking procedures.

At HQ, a breathalyzer test revealed Day's blood alcohol content (BAC) was 0.26%, more than three times the legal limit. He was charged with a number of offenses, and released to reappear in Hyde Park Town Court on December 2^{nd} .
