INCIDENT: Police announce the arrests of two teens for multiple acts of graffiti

This past Saturday evening, multiple locations throughout the Town of Hyde Park suffered damage at the hands of a group of juveniles who spray painted graffiti on a number of buildings. On Sunday morning, Hyde Park Police took reports of graffiti at locations including, but not limited to: McDonald's, Superior Wireless, the old Molloy's Pharmacy, the Amish market, the Hyde Park Pizza building, and St. James' Church. A number of vehicles were also vandalized with spray paint.

Although not every incident of graffiti was able to be tied to a specific suspect, several individuals were interviewed and two suspects were identified as being responsible for a number of the incidents. The following subjects have been charged:

Arrested: Jason Daniel White, 19, of 167 East Dorsey Lane, Hyde Park

Charges: Criminal Mischief 3rd Degree, a Class E Felony – five (5) counts
Making Graffiti, a Class A Misdemeanor – five (5) counts

Arrested: a 16 yoa female from Hyde Park

Charges: Criminal Mischief 3rd Degree, a Class E Felony – two (2) counts
Making Graffiti, a Class A Misdemeanor – two (2) counts

Both suspects were arrested last evening; after being booked, they were both arraigned before the Hon. Judge Kennedy and were both released on their own recognizance to reappear in Hyde Park Town Court on November 9th.
