INCIDENT: Fugitive from Michigan arrested by U.S. Marshalls, Hyde Park Police

Early this morning, Hyde Park Police accompanied members of the United States Marshalls Service to a residence on South Quaker Lane in an attempt to locate a fugitive who was believed to be residing there. U.S. Marshalls had contacted HPPD some time ago regarding the subject, later identified as 30-year-old Justin Sheppard; he is reported to be a sex offender from the state of Michigan, who had violated the terms of his release and had fled to New York.

Based upon an investigation by the Marshalls Service, a warrant for Sheppard's arrest was issued, and he was taken into custody at app. 6:30 AM this morning without incident. Sheppard was transported to HPPD after his arrest, and was subsequently taken by U.S. Marshalls to White Plains for further processing.
