TO: Press Sources

DATE OF INCIDENT: January 19, 2012

LOCATION: 3999 Albany Post Rd (the Old Ames Building)

INCIDENT: Hyde Park Police arrest two suspects on Criminal trespass and Grand larceny charges after two-week investigation

On January 19, 2012 at approximately 12:51AM, Officer Jason Ruscillo observed a dark colored truck driving behind the old Ames department store on Albany Post Road with its lights off. Officer Ruscillo encountered two subjects, Anthony J. Tricamo and Christopher T. Key looking through a pile of scrap metal behind the abandoned building. While interviewing these subjects, it was determined that they did steal three large metal road grates from a job site in Hyde Park. The grates are valued at approximately $3780.00.

Hyde Park Police charged both individuals in connection with this incident and more arrests may be forthcoming. Key was arraigned on January 27, 2012 before Judge Steinberg and remanded to Dutchess County Jail with $10,000 cash/bond. Tricamo was released on an appearance ticket to return to Hyde Park Court on February 9, 2012.

Arrested: Christopher T Key, 23, of 27 Julia Drive, Hyde Park
Anthony J Tricamo, 25, of 4 Margaret Street, Red Hook

Charges: Grand Larceny 4th Degree, a Class E Felony
Criminal Trespass in the Third Degree a Class B Misdemeanor
(Both subjects charged with both of these crimes)
Aggravated Unlicensed Operation on the 2nd degree a Class A misdemeanor
(Christopher was only charged with this crime he was the operator)
