INCIDENT: Car versus Pedestrian

On December 4, 2013 at approximately 7:44 am the Hyde Park Police Department was dispatched to a car versus pedestrian accident on Violet Ave near Brower Blvd. Police arrived and found a 64 year old male who had been struck by a vehicle. The victim was entering the Northbound lane from the East shoulder of the roadway and was struck by a 1992 Ford Econoline Van traveling North on Violet Ave. The victim sustained a head injury and a broken leg. His injuries are described as serious but not life threatening. The Hyde Park Police Department was assisted by The Dutchess County Sheriffs Office, Hyde Park Fire Department, and Northern Dutchess Paramedics. When more details are available they will be released at that time.
