INCIDENT: Hyde Park man arrested for Burglary

On June 26, 2015 at approximately 1:44 pm the town of Hyde Park Police Department was dispatched to Rite Aid on Rt 9g for a reported violation of protection that was in progress. Patrol arrived at the scene and began to interview the parties involved. During the investigation a male identified as Dennis Vasquez became agitated. When police attempted to take him into custody he fled on foot. After a short foot chase, a physical altercation occurred between officers and Vasquez. At the time of the struggle Vasquez made an attempt to take one of the officer's duty weapons, subsequently he was tasered by another officer and then was taken into custody. Vasquez was transported to Mid Hudson Regional for evaluation. Vasquez was on parole for a previous violation of an order of protection. He was then transported to Dutchess County Jail and remanded on a parole warrant.

Hyde Park Police are filing the following charges with the Town of Hyde park Justice Court. He will be produced at a later time to be processed on the below charges.
