INCIDENT: Hyde Park Man Charged with Criminal Possession of a Firearm

On January 2, 2017 the Hyde Park Police Department received a call for a reported larceny from a residence. The suspect left the house and was waiting outside for a Taxi cab. Patrol arrived and the suspect got into a Taxi cab and attempted to leave. Patrols stopped the taxi cab and interviewed the suspect identified as Jermell I McLean a 40 year old male from Hyde Park. McLean while being interviewed attempted to flee from the Police on foot and was quickly apprehended. McLean was found to be in the possession of the stolen property as well as a defaced .38 caliber Smith & Wesson revolver. McLean did not have a pistol permit for said weapon.

McLean was arraigned in front of Judge Petito and remanded to the Dutchess County Jail on no bail, because of previous felony convictions. He is scheduled to reappear in the Town of Hyde Park Justice Court on Thursday January 5, 2017 at 9:00 am.
