

The town OF Hyde Park “Music in the Parks” presents:

“The Amazing Unit Orchestra”.
(at Franklin Delano Roosevelt High School, Hyde Park, NY)

A concert designed to de-mystify concert organs, and dispel any preconceived notions about them!

A gift to the Hyde Park Central School District from the New York Theatre Organ Society (www.nytos.org), the Gus Pratt Memorial Organ is a true one-man orchestra. With the latest digital technology, it enables a performer to be his/her own conductor by effortlessly transitioning from soloist to back-up band to full orchestra.

Nationally known keyboard artist John Baratta will put the instrument through its paces with selections ranging from Classical to Jazz. Voice and Piano will add to the ensemble with chanteuse Barbara Rankin - a well-known local performer, and John Gagliardi – keyboard artist and advanced organ student.

Other students participating in organ studies at the high school, as conducted by John Baratta, will also make cameo appearances at this concert.

Come and enjoy this sonic spectacular and gain a new perspective!

Concert at 7pm June 14, 2017 and FREE!
