For Immediate Release

January 21, 2010

Hyde Park Recreation's annual Winterfest will be held on Sunday, January 31st.

Hyde Park will hold their annual Winterfest on Sunday Jan 31st from 1-4:00pm at Hackett Hill Park. Free admission. There will be sledding, cross-country skiing instruction by Potter Brothers, snowshoeing (snowshoes supplied by EMS) a trail hike and scavenger hunt at 2pm, snow games, crafts, a marshmallow roast and refreshments. The soup is being made and donated by The Culinary Institute of America, the Hyde Park Police will be offering free children's IDs and the Hyde Park Fire Dept will display a fire truck. "Frosty" will make an appearance!

Please bring your plastic sleds and snowtubes (no snowboards or toboggans allowed), and enjoy the hills at Hackett Hill Park. We hope to see you there!

Since this is a snow dependant event, there is a snow date of Feb 7th. If the weather is in question, call the recreation office @ 229-8086 x4

For more information, contact Diane Cullen – Recreation Leader, at 229-8086 x4.
